"CLINK THE GLASSES...HURRAH"..

For Camp Chickawah.....where we made so many new friends from all over the States and the world; where we learned new skills; where we proved that men can live together in harmony....and where we added another page in our book of camping memories.

The thoughts for this Banquet night, for the final H in Chickawah, are HARMONY and HOME. It is time .. again to leave our summer home and camp family and return to our own individual homes. Let us take with us the lessons learned by living together in Cooperation, Helpfulness, Kindness, and HARMONY...until we "gather all around in the camp-fire light"....in '73.

See You then,

Moe and Betty

 MOVIE OF THE

with Paul Ehlers

Perhaps the most exciting and creative activity that ever happened on the Chickawah scene, was developed this summer by a talented, exciting, versatile, sensitive, and sometimes insane film maker and counselor, Paul "Snake Man" Ehlers, who carried his camera to the top of Mickey's Rambler (with Susan stunt driving) and to the middle of the Lake, and into the swamp! The result is a film epic which tells the story of an Indian Tribe whose Chief orders a series of games in order to select the strongest and bravest of the braves, perhaps to be groomed as his successor.

All enjoyed helping in the production, and the whole camp was treated to the premier on Sunday nite, August 20. When Paul returns to New York he will complete the sound Narration, and we hope to show the film again at Reunions this winter.

There are many CREDITS for the production which include:

Sets:

Dan Oegema and Wilem DeJoeng

Costumes & Make-up Assist:

Bill Silsby & Aunt Betty

Chickawah Cinematographers Assoc.

David Srour & David Sigman

Sound:

Gary Leeds

Assistant Director:

Tommy Schottland

 BANQUET ***

The Senior House of '72, in order to commemorate an unusually creative, and sometimes ghoulish camping summer, chose as their Banquet Theme...HORROR... or to put it moderately..Haunted House. This helped to remind us of the tremendous effort put forth in the Haunted House at Carnival(by bunks 4 & 9)

Little friendly ghosts sat as favors at everyone's plate, and the otherwise HORRORLY decorated Hall made us tremblingly aware of the fact that we were being entertained by a ghost....er ghostly Senior House..(but they're nice.. ..(sometimes)

The program included speeches, awards, and highlights of the summer including an Ehlers story and some Sapperstein imitations.

GRAY DOMINATES THE FIELD....AND WINS DECISEVELY

What were you doing at 4:00 o'clock on Monday afternoon, August 14th? Some members of Brazil and Belgium teams were involved in the finals match of the World Cup Soccer Tournament. Some were playing Tennis Tournament matches. Others went about the business of an elective activity day, finishing button tests or crafts projects. Many were on the lake. But some, suspecting something when the ski boat "broke down", were watching for the signs. Then Willard, his timing a little off, drove his tractor through the soccer field (a little early) and Mickey staged a heated discussion with him for " interrupting" the game..... meanwhile, back at the boxball court, firecrackers began to fly..explode ..and or pop, and campers came running, paddling, and rowing, to get the team lists that filled the air.....and another Olympic series was on its way.

At the opening Ceremony, the four captains, Billy Miller, Fred Cohen, Don Gross,, and Tom Schottland, were congratulated for this highest honor that can be given to a Chickawah camper. Uncle Moe wished everyone a fine series of their best efforts in the true spirit of the Olympics, where all nations come together in Peace and good sportsmanship. Then Billy and Fred chose Gray, and Don and Tom chose Blue, and the '72 Olympics was on its way.

Gray took an early lead on the first morning of activity, winning the field events and two of the cross country events in the track meet. They were 30 points up going into the second day, and Blue made a fine effort, cutting the lead to fifteen points. There were the usual great plays in all age groups, but perhaps one that will be remembered the longest was the outstanding backhanded catch on the ballfield by Ira Berezowsky, for which he received a Happy Birthday Song...(this was really not in order because we know it was a great catch by the way Barry Adler collapsed on his back). On the third evening, Blue hoped to win three songs, but split the song contest. It was Blue fight, Gray Alma Mater, and a split on the two entertaining comedy songs.

The fourth day was rained out, cancelling one morning of games as pre-arranged on the schedule, and so, Gray needed only one game on the final morning. It came....you guessed it....on the Newcomb court, where Willie Licht made the winning serve, and the contest was all over.

At the pump everybody cheered everybody for a great effort.(even the judges)... and now , as one big family again, all we remember is the good plays.....and"NEAL'S MOUTH.... da...da..da...da"

On Saturday, August 12th, Chickawah played host to sisters from neighboring camps, at our annual Charity day. The weather man couldn't make up his mind, and we were inside, outside....and finally stayed indoors. The concessions worked very well on the porch of the social hall, while others were arranged inside....and downstairs, the never to be equalled "Haunted House" had over seventy shaking visitors.

Cheers to Bill Silsby who helped everyone with planning and building, the waiters who sold ice cream cones on the Mess Hall porch, and John Bakowsky, whose Tiki God Raffle went over the top this year with a profit of $31.16. The senior house ran a profitable Casino, everybody put everybody else in Bunk 6's Jailhouse, and all had a great time.

Proceeds of this years charity event will go to Stevens Memorial Hospital in Norway, and another check will benefit Bridgton Cumberland Hospital, so that in having fun we were also helping the community.

Chirps cheers to everybody for making this another happy day. Special mention too should be made for other top money makers; Bunk 10 with the Ping Pong Toss, Bunk 13 and Card Poker, Bunk 2 and their Bean Bag Toss, Bunk 8 and the ever popular sponge throw, and Bunk 1 and the Apple Dunk!.....Come to the Carnival in '73 with new ideas , and we'll prove again that Happiness is Helping!

Though it was a little damp in July, the Swim Bugle blew for many A for Aardvark, B for Bedlam, and C for Catastrophic....etc..etc swim clinics this summer, and the tags were really turning on the Buddy Board.

The ferry boat, deftly handled by Gene Ostmeyer, made many Island trips, helping about thirty boys to achieve this over $\frac{1}{2}$ mile survival swim; the pre-requisite to sailing, canoeing, and water skiing activity.

In the swim clinics, nearly every camper advanced to the next Red Cross swimming certification. Chirps cheers to Tom and his staff for helping to make the following achievements possible:

Island Swimmers:

Gary Arkin, Scott Black, Jonathan Blinken, Peter Cramers, Ricky Enfield, Brett Ersoff, Howard Finger, Randy Fisher, Andy Goetz, Guy Hubschman, Harry Klaff, Jeff Kridel, David Kronman, Bruce Levine, Louis Pakula, Steven Plump, Joel Rabinovitz, Steven Rattner, Richard Rattner, Bruce Rubenstein, Adam Shapiro, Adam Siegel, David Sigman, David Srour, David Tager, Jack Tischenkel, Guy Tuvin, James Zirkman, Joe Zirkman

Raft Test:

All those who swam to the Island as new campers plus:
David Gomprecht, Eric Hershenson, Greg Hershenson, Bruce Kronman, Willie Licht, Michael Roth, Scott Saltman, Jimmy Weinstein, and James Weisz.

Crib Test:

This is the first Chickawah test which means that a boy is well on his way to passing Red Cross Beginner, and can swim in the deep end of the Crib:

Alan Swimmer

In addition to Chickawah qualifying swim tests, the following boys have worked in swim clinic to pass these Red Cross tests:

Red Cross Beginner:

Howard Finger, David Gomprecht, Eric Hershenson, Scott Saltman, Adam Siegel, Jack Tischenkel, Jimmy Weinstein, James Weisz

Advanced Beginner:

Andy Goetz!, Greg Hershenson, Harry Klaff, Bruce Kronman, Bruce Levine, Michael Roth, Adam Shapiro, Billy Solomon, Guy Tuvin, David Sigman, David Tager, Peter Ellis, Joel Rabinovitz, James Zirkman.

Intermediate:

Brian Besser, David Blinken, Jonathan Blinken, Eric Bromberg, Greg Ellis, Ricky Enfield, Louis Pakula, Steven Plump, Steven Rattner, Bruce Rubenstein, Paul Sikov, Howard Simon, David Srour, Kenny Zirkman, Joe Zirkman, Scott Black, Richard Rattner, Guy Hubschman, David Kronman

Swimmer:

David Weiner, Mark Levine, Mark Rubin

To date the Junior AND Senior Life Saving Classes are still struggling to complete the course.. and they have very little time, but we are cheering for them. Also the big swimmer of the year is again.. ANDY TAGER...who has completed the Chickawah Varsity Manhattan Marathon Swim..... $12\frac{1}{2}$ miles of assorted prescribed strokes. Hoo-Rah Andy for making his second swim plaque in the social hall, and very special thanks to Tom, Little Dave, Big Gene, and all other swim clinic assists who made this a banner swimming year!

* * * J U N I O R F I R S T A I D * * *

This summer a group of campers worked during club or workshop (other) time to complete the requirements for the Junior First Aid rating. They are now valuable helpers at home, in school or in the community in case of accident or injury. David Verlinda, master of many trades, taught the course and the following boys will get their cards: David Sigman, Howard Feinglass, Andy Tager, David Tager, Glenn Sommer, and Brian Besser

The camp community is always better and safer, when members are safety conscious, and Dave has helped to foster this spirit!

* * * LANDSPORTS '72 * * *

The Kickapoo Tribe, led by Chief Andy Rodnan, held a strong lead and finally met at the winning Feast, with advisor Gene Ostmeyer, quite pleased that they had dominated field events for a satisfying win. Although The fighting Chinook won both the Firelighting contest and Tribal Bowl, Chief Gary Leeds and his trailing Tribe, could not score enough points to make a dent in the final score. All Tribes are to be congratulated for a spirited season. They buried the hatchet at the last campfire, with a final HOW HOW, and so concluded another year of campfire challenges and fun.

In Feast Leagues the big news was a tie in the Sr. League between Paul Schottlands Tar Heels, and Bob McNeil's Nittany Lions. To the victors went the usual hamburgers, cokes and victory cakes after Taps, and somebody had a Pizza Feast, and everybody had the experience of participating in another active Feast League season.

VARSITY TEAMS

Participating in Varsity Team activity is an elective decision. Those boys who enjoy team competition, and who are skilled in various sports, try out for teams in the beginning of the summer in Baseball, basketball, Tennis, Soccer, Swimming, Water Skiing, Riflery, Softballand enjoy competing against teams from neighboring camps. We are proud of the following boys who represented us this summer:

The third annual World Cup Soccer Tournament, organized this year by Skippy Miller, was again a tremendous success in that nearly every camper participated in the event. The winning team was BRAZIL...led by Captain Don Gross. They beat BELGIUM led by the other Gross (smile) in the finals that were finally held after having been so rudely interrupted by Blue and Gray. SOCCER is becoming the game that everyone enjoys, and we are hoping that the landscaping on the new field will be ready for play in '73. In the World Cup this year, each game was twenty minutes long and every team member had to play at least half the game. Here are the teams:

Each year it becomes more and more impossible to thank John Bakowsky for the tremendous effort and skill that he pours into the shop every summer. This summer, the number of projects in wood, ceramic, plastic, cut glass, macrame, and many more, that have been completed by each camper set a new record. Ably assisted in the shop by Bill Silsby, John teaches every boy the use of tools, and all must complete at least one project before being allowed to build a rocket.

On Sunday evening, August 13, Johnny B. held his annual BLAST OFF... and as we all sat on the side of the hill the stage was set for one of the best Blue and Gray hoaxes that we have had... Rick "Row" Horrow, announced the count down in his inimitable articulate way, and this year's winning rocket was built by Jeff Hersh, followed closely by Alan Swimmer and Bruce Kronman... (Fred Cohen's giant doesn't count!)... Cheers again to John and the best shop in the U.S. !!!

It was another busy year at the ski cove where close to forty boys passed AWSA camper ski ratings, many who had never skied before, and received awards at the Banquet for their efforts. Cheers to the two Jims for their fine efforts, and to the following boys who passed these hurdles:

Expert:

Don Gross, Andy Rodnan, Steve Lerner, Kenny Bromberg, Ted Abrams, and Jeff Kridel.

1st class:

Guy Hubschman

2nd Class:

David Blinken, Greg Ellis, Peter Ellis, Mark Levine, Steven Plump, Bruce Rubenstein, David Weiner

3rd Class:

Peter Cramas, Brett Ersoff, Bruce Levine, Matty Pace, Louis Pakula, Joey Zirkman

Beginner:

Gary Arkin, Scott Black, Randy Fisher, Howard Finger, Harry Klaff, David Kronman, Joel Rabinovitz, Richard Rattner, Steve Rattner, Glenn Schwartzman, Mike Silverman, David Srouer, and David Teger.

The VARSITY SKI TEAM, many of them experts from '71, came through with flying colors in the five camp invitational ski meet. A big Hoo-Rah to Trick Specialists, Marc Straussberg and Mark Kaplan; Trick and Slalom Specialists Marc Rubin, Gary Leeds, Jeff Kridel, and Ted Abrams, and Slalom Specialist Steve Lerner.

The track program, sparked by Jan's enthusiasm last summer, grew this year and another meet was added to the schedule. Many awards were given at the Banquet for 1st, 2nd, 3d, and 4th place winners. In the Tokkomeupog Meet Mark Levine placed first in the 50 yard dash in the 10 yr. group... Ted Abrams placed 1st in the 220 yd. dash in the 10yr. group, Mark Levine, 1st in the same event in the 12 yr. , and Jeff Rosen and Jim Tauberg in the 14, and 15 yr. respectively. In the same meet we had 2nd place winners Jeff Rosen, Bruce Levine, and Don Gross, and placing 3rd in 50 yd and 220 yd. dash, Marc Straussberg, Ted Abrams. 3rd place winners in the long jump were Gary Arkin, Marc Straussberg, Jeff Rosen, and Jim Tauberg.

At the Cedar Invitational Meet we did very well again. Barry Adler placed first in the soft ball throw, and Gary Arkin took third in the broad jump. Four man relay teams also did well. Cheers to Jan for a great effort, and for his enthusiasm and initiative in developing this sport at Chickawah, and a big hiima lacka choo to the track team: Jim Tauberg, Don Gross, Jeff Rosen, Marc Sobel, Richard Arkin, David Polsky, Doug Getter, Randy Fine, Barry Adler, David Mogul, Kenny Bromberg, Steve Rattner, Mark Levine, Steve Goldman, Eric Berk, Marc Straussberg, Marc Rubin, Andy Libas, Jack Silberman, Mark Silverstein, Stephen Lerner, Matty Pace, Bruce Levine, Gary Arkin, Ted Abrams, Doug Henston, Brett Ersoff, Joel Rabinovitz, Eric Hershenson, Jeff Kridel, Greg Hershenson.

Riflery was an elective activity this year, so the boys who spent time on the range were those who really enjoy testing their skill at this discipline. A number of campers passed Riflery Ratings: Pro- Marksman: Jonc Blinken, Ricky Enfield, Howard Finger, & James Zirkman. Marksman: Randy Fisher, Mark Levine, Bert Scheiman, David Sigman, David Srouer & Joe Zirkman (who also did Pro-Marksman, Marksman 1st class and Sharpshooter!). Also Sharpshooter: Steve Goldman and Dan Zirkman, and the highest scorers this summer at Bar 1, Marc Sobel and Dan Zirkman. Most of these shooters comprise the Rifle team. which includes Mark Rosen and Steve Rattner and Peter Cramas...(also Tom Gaffney made Sharpshooter!)

Boating on Island Pond has always been a favorite activity. All campers like to go fishing, or turtle hunting, or to feel the first thrill of learning to steer a small craft in the water. The first Canoe test is the Island Swim, and this too is the pre-requisite for sailing. The second Boat test and Canoe tests include strokes and handling of the craft. The following campers worked this summer to pass small craft tests:

2nd Boat:- Red Cross Basic Boating

2nd Canoe- Red cross Basic Canoeing

David Weiner, Glenn Sommer, Billy Solomon, Jack Silberman, David Srouer, Eric Berk, Jeff Hersh, Andy Libas, Howard Feinglass, Mark Levine, Michael Silverman, Howard Simon, and Randy Pine

When the lake is filled with sails, all feel that it would be fun to learn this skill, but few master the art well enough to qualify for sailing ratings. Chirps cheers go to:

Many hikers left our shores for the heights in the White Mountain National Forest. One of the first Mountains attempted was Mt. Chocorua. The climbers left camp at 6:30 in the morning, cooked breakfast along the Kankamagus Highway, and spent an adventurous day on foot. The heartiest of the climbers chose the three day Appalachian trail trip during trip week, climbed up Mount Madison and spent the first night in the Madison Appalachian hut where the hutman cooked their dinner, provided bunk beds, breakfast and a packed trail lunch. The second day they hiked along the ridges of the Presidential range (only 6000 feet up), and spent the second night at Mitspah Spring Hut. And the third day it was downhill all the way. These hearty climbers were: Brian Besser, Steve Goldman, David Polsky, Mark Rosen, Paul Sikov, Andy Libas, and Andy Tager, plus of course Willem and Dan. Others who hit the mountain trails were, Eric Berk, David Blinken, Jono Blinken, Randy Pine, Howard Finger, Randy Fisher, Andy Goetz, Louis Pakala, Joel Rabinovitz, Michael Roth, Bruce Rubenstein, Adam Siegel, David Sigman, David Srouer, David Tager.

Canoe trips were bigger than ever with Tim Perry and Dave Verlinde scouting new trips and shooting rapids with the expert canoeists. Those who qualified with 2nd canoe, and who tripped this year were: Barry Adler, Eric Berk, Kenny Bromberg, Fred Cohen, Howard Feinglass, Don Gross, Jeff Hersh, Mark Kaplan, Mark Levine, Andy Libas, David Polsky, Andy Rodnan, Jeff Rosen, Bert Scheiman, Michael Silverman, Howard Simon, Marc Sobel, Billy Solomon, Glenn Sommer, David Srouer, Andy Tager, Mike Tager, Jim Teuberg, and David Weiner....Pack up your sleeping bags and we'll do it all again next year!
