RUBBERNECKING on ISLAND POND ROAD! CHICKAWAH WELCOMES PARENTS

*** PAPAGO OVERTAKES MIAMI IN CLOSE TRIBAL CONTEST ***

by Tom Moore

This year's Tribes has become very close. Miami took an early lead, but as we reach the half way point, the Papago Tribe has come out on top by a mere 3/4 of a point. That's just three campfire challenges!

Jeff Rosen's Papago Tribe edged Lowell Miller's Miami out of first as they took two out of three from Miller's Tribe. The race is still close, for Miami won Newcomb while losing to Papago in Volleyball and Basketball.

In the other games, Todd Jolson's Kwakiutl swept soccer and softball from Darren Blumberg's Kickapoo to hold their current 3rd place standing.

With a month to go, can Papago retain their lead? Miami is still strong and Kwakiutl is coming up from behind. It will be an exciting month of Tribes with the Swim Meet still to be run, and the finals of Tribal Bowl...and Tribal Dramatics should be as much fun for all as it is a chance for the very creative to score points. At this writing the standings are:

|          |        |
|----------|--------|
| Papago   | 46     |
| Miami    | 45 1/4 |
| Kwakiutl | 31     |
| Kickapoo | 5 3/4  |

*** MIAMI ROMPS IN TRIBAL BOWL ROUND 1 ***

Tribes, the four units in which campers belong, meet in council ring, and compete on land and in water, are testing grounds intellectually as well. The format for the battling of the brains is "Tribal Bowl". In the first round this year, the Miami panel of Laskawy, captain Lowell Miller, Tom Moore, and Ira Siegel, pulled away from the Papago team of captain Jeff Rosen, Greg Simon, Todd Gelband, and Ian Mendelsohn, to win with a score of 245 over 105.

The welcome mat is out today, and every bunk is in 10+ order as we gather in clean shirts and smiles, to introduce new friends and show off some of our accomplishments.

The Chirps bids all a happy day, and hopes that you are prepared with film and walking shoes. The soccer field is a little way from the lake.

The schedule will be as usual for Saturday, with one exception. Rest period will afford time to demonstrate new water ski skills and freedom to visit wherever it feels good.

*** WHY SWIM TO AN ISLAND ***
( excerpted from a Chirps feature)

"The Island" became a goal to conquer as soon as it was discovered and the lake named Island Pond. We will always appreciate and use The Island Swim to prove our competency in the water and to gain confidence in ourselves.

New Island swimmers this summer are: Billy Perlman, John Torine, Jeff Mandelbaum, Jon Mandelbaum, Cary Barnhard, Michael Marks, Zach Gelber, Ryan Rondina, and Jordan Roth.

Chirps cheers to Craig and the waterfront staff, and to Chickawah swimmers!

*** A CAMPING SUMMER...THE GIFT OF INDEPENDENCE ***

Our parents give us many gifts, not the least of which is life, including language. They stand beside us; models for us to follow, as we learn how to meet people, and behave in acceptable ways in order to succeed.

As we grow they have one goal; to see us mature, strong, self assured, and able to be the best that we can be.

A summer at camp is a special gift; the privilege of venturing on our own, making choices, testing values, learning skills. In providing a camping summer, parents give the gift of independence.

This is an unusual gift: it can be accepted or rejected. We reject it when we turn to our parents to solve all problems. We accept it when we demonstrate our ability to meet new challenges; we accept it by displaying our self reliance, just as we did when we learned to walk.

A summer at camp is a giant step! Take advantage of every opportunity, and return their loving gift in full measure.

Moe, Betty, and Mickey

*** INITIATIVE...THE WORD FOR THE WEEK ***

I decided to write this speech because I wanted to show that I had INITIATIVE. I wanted to be the first camper or counselor this year, to deliver a talk on one of the letters in CHICKAWAH. It takes a lot of courage to stand in front of the camp and set an example. There are many times in our lives when we have to take charge, whether it be in school or on the ballfields.

To me, INITIATIVE means: taking charge of a situation; guts, and courage. If you break initiative down you will find the word initial which means to be the first. It also means going beyond what is expected of you and being responsible.

Cooperation, Harmony, Courage, Kindness, Awareness, Wisdom, Ability, and Helpfulness, all words that form the letters of Chickawah make our camp what it is...a family. So for the coming week show some INITIATIVE!

*** A GOOD LONG HIKE WILL TAKE ME ANYWHERE ***

Hiking, Mountain Climbing, canoe tripping, campcraft skills, and the appreciation of the great outdoors is a treasure found in Maine summer camping. In the coming weeks, there will be some new skills to explore, as Dave completes his plans for the beginning of a Ropes Course, a Monkey Bridge, to build and to enjoy, and a Rapelling platform..( to replace the Social Hall Porch)..A Totem Pole for the campfire site is also in planning stages. Also many more hikes and the seven peaks of Mt. Katahdin, King of Eastern Appalachians, are always in Dave's sites.

THE HIKE OF JULY 15

by Cary Barnhard

As Dave Verlinde started up the Van, we knew we were in for surprises and adventure. We had embarked on a seven mile hike, classified as Intermediate: After some difficulty in the Ranger Station with brochures and some trouble finding the road, we were off. There were only minor injuries on the way up ( Ed. Note: Whew!) At the top we ate a hearty lunch of cold cuts and crackers. After posing for a few pictures we were off on the quest to the bottom.

This time we returned with the same amount of people that we left with. ( this time?) On the way back we ate candy bars, and I knew why I went on the hike. For the food!

( Last Note: Shall we send this to the New Yorker?)

*** CANOE TRIP '85 ***

by Colin Hamilton

On Tuesday, the 16th, a group of campers and counselors that consisted of Mitchell Young, Colin Hamilton, Brad Aronson, David Burman, Mitchell Nydish, Steven and Michael Winick, Todd Gelband, Jeff Rosen, James Savin, Dave Verlinde, and Rick Snyder, set out on a Canoe trip on the Saco river.

After slight difficulties finding a place to enter the river, and a difficult portage, we were on our way. About a mile into the trip, we stopped and held an "agricultural olympics"...(?)...This was abruptly ended by one angry farmer and a tractor!( that sounds like another story)

We paddled steadily until dark and upon reaching a suitable campsite, we set up camp. We had homemade pizza and cherry cobbler for dinner.

In the morning, we cleaned up the campsite, cooked breakfast, and set off. After a few hours we reached Steep Falls campground.

We then decided to swim. With a few exceptions..( Ed. Note: Cheers to all for coping and to Steve for courage!) everything went well.

11 AND UNDER BEATS KOHUT 6-2

Players: Daniel Freeman, Benjie Polakoff, Billy Perlman, Zach Gelber, Jorge Septien, Larry Wagenberg, Michael Solmsen, Jeff Mandelbaum, Fernando Prieto, Ryan Jolson, Jon Torine, David Sodowick, Francisco Prieto, Eric Fink.

In the beginning it was an exciting soccer game, but not for our side, because the Kohut team began stronger than we did. They even scored two goals...a slam in the face.

But, watch it! Our team was awakening. John Torine and Fernando Prieto scored a goal each, and the score was even. Soon after this the first half ended, and we used our rest to become strong for the 2nd half.

In the second half, the game became rougher and rougher. Jorge and Fernando were kicked three times, and Ryan Jolson, five times. But Chickawah came back in good sportsmanship. We scored four times. Goals were scored by Fernando, Francisco, John, and David.

So you see dudes; in spite of them making fun of us and playing rough, we beat them. So never make fun of the 11 and under Soccer Team. They will strike back!!

Honorable mention for Jeff Mandelbaum and Ryan Jolson who played very well; plus of course for the whole team!

15 AND UNDER SOCCER TEAM 3-2

AGAINST WAZIATAH..GAME CALLED BECAUSE OF RAIN.

Players: Todd Gelband, Scott Simon, Phil Slewett, Gregg Simon, Tony Laskawy, Judd Siegel, Jeff Rosen, Lowell Miller, Sam Polakoff, David Friedman, Scott Korde, Sandy Pink, and Todd Jolson.

This was our first home soccer game, so we knew we had to win this one. Waziatah is a new camp, so we knew nothing about the strength of our opponent. We soon found out that they were strong. They began with a few serious attacks. Their right wing was extremely dangerous. Even Judd had trouble keeping up with him. Just when I thought they would score, we did. Actually Lowell did; making the score 1-0. But they came back in a few minutes, and the score was 1-1. The game was really very hard and our defense played very well except for the 2nd goal on their side.

The 2nd half began very good for us. Jeff Rosen scored an amazing goal with his left foot. He had never done anything like it he told me. Todd Gelband played the game of his life stopping several shots. But what about them? Listen up. Their fast right wing scored another goal...score 2-2.. But here came Lowell again scoring his 2nd goal...score 3-2. Good game..called 15 minutes early.

Tom Laskawy easily fielded the first three tossups, setting the pace for Miami. He scored the first points of the round by spelling the word Phlegm.

We all got very smart, learning a combination of knowledge and trivia. It took an old timer like Todd to come up with Mickey's middle name... Alan. We also learned that when he grows up, Todd wants to be just like Doug.

Once again, Craig Gelband was a formidable M.C. assisted by the "Unerring Electric Eye", Doug Sparks; "The Unerring Acutron Timer, Kirby Volz; and at the "Unerring Totalizator Board"...Scott Saltman.

In the 2nd round it will be the brains of Kwakiutl against the intellect of Kickapoo. Chirps cheers for a great evening program!

*** JORDAN ROTH WINS CAVALCADE OF TALENT AMIDST STANDING OVATION AND CHEERS ***

by Billy Perlman

As you all know, the 1985 Cavalcade of Talent was a smash. The winner of the show was Jordan Roth with his wonderful rendition of Tomorrow. The runner-up was the 1985 Mexican Connection ( plus one border patrol), by lip synching The Reflex by Duran Duran. Didn't they look funky?...Cool or what! Micah Seletsky clinched 3rd place with his beautiful violin solo, Bouree. My personal favorite was Aaron Seletsky, Robert Aronson and Jim Steele doing "Like a Virgin" by Madonna. I like when he stuck his hands in his pants!..The M.C.'s were very good....at getting people wet! But what I absolutely thought was the best were Jeff Rosen and Todd Gelband alias Huey and Duey. Carla looked especially lovely that night. Good hat; nice shades!

I saw some real talent and it made me proud to be at a camp packed with so much talent. I can't end the article without complementing Kirby for all his hard work and effort. I was sad when it was over. I wished there was more. Keep the talent coming Chickawah!

QUOTABLE QUOTE:

Carlos to Mickey: " You know the bugle. Could you make it louder. It never wakes me up in the morning and then the O.D. comes and I'm sleeping."

Carlos' counselor: " @#$%&*!!

12 AND UNDER LOSES TO A STRONG POWATAN TEAM ***

Koos Keizer
Players: Benjie Polakoff, John Torine David Lichtenberg, Adam Caplan, Jeff Mandelbaum, Billy Perlman, Fernando Prieto, Ryan Jolson, Tony Polakoff, Adam Green, Francisco Prieto, Robert Aronson, and David Sodowick.

Well, there we went..beautiful weather, 13 players, two coaches, and an easy game...we thought. What a surprise. They were bigger and better. One of them was something like 5' 5". In ten minutes the score was 4-0 theirs. In the 2nd half, and losing 9-0, Robert Aronson scored! Soon after they scored again, and Robert came back again and scored his second goal. Final score 10-2. We came home realizing that we need some practice!

( Ed. Note: We win some..we lose some. We give it our best)

*** WORKSHOPS *** '85

On Monday nights, the popular workshops are buzzing with activity. In this club period, campers have the opportunity to explore a variety of activities. Among them are:

COMPUTER...this is one of the more popular workshops, ably run by Paul Carstensen, a man of many talents. There they have the opportunity to learn about programs. They are also getting good at those mystery clues.

SKETCHING...run by Steve Kurth is another of the popular activities with many multi-talented people finding this a rewarding outlet.

GYMNASTICS AND TUMBLING...with Koos Keizer has its followers. On some occasion they will probably also learn some Judo.

HAM RADIO...with Robert Wright is a hobby that takes knowledge and ability..(and money) Many campers are working toward their Novice licenses this summer.

CHESS AND CHECKERS...has many regulars..and FISHING..with Craig is always fun. GO CARTS...of course with Jonny b. meet more often than once a week ( and not on Mondays)and there are those who opt for BASEBALL AND BASKETBALL RULES.

Whatever the workshop, its a busy learning time...and fun!

JOHN BAKOWSKI...HEAD OF SHOP....and a counselor at Chickawah for many moons( with time out for two wars) is a graduate of Oswego State University, and has a Masters degree from Teachers College, Columbia University. John teaches Industrial Arts in Glen Head, Long Island. The shop at Chickawah, housing boats underneath, was built for John by Uncle Chick, so that he could direct projects in wood, ceramics, lapidary, electronics, printing, and science workshops in rocketry and automotives. John is never at a loss for new project ideas at the Lakeside Crafts House. Visitors will get the $50 tour!

DAVE VERLINDE...HEAD OF PIONEERING AND TRIPS...is back again for another round of spectacular adventures. Dave appeared on the Chickawah scene as a nineteen year old sophomore from Oakland University, majoring in Engineering. Somehow, probably through association, he turned into a math teacher, and has been teaching for thirteen years expanding his curriculum area to Science and Biology. In Chickawah he has also worn many hats. He is a Radio Ham, call letters WB8AXP...and a pilot.. and a W.S.I. He's been best all around camper, scout, hiker, and canoe expert, and in 1976 was Head of Waterfront and earned his seven year jacket. This summer he can be found either coming or going with a new mascot( Motley Moose is at home with Melissa Moose) a baby gorilla named Abicrombe Ape..Always thinking of new projects, Dave plans a Rapelling platform, a Monkey Bridge near Bunk 1, and a brand new Totem Pole for the campfire entrance. What a guy!

CARLA NIXON...NURSE....is a small package of dynamite from Crawfordsville, Indiana. Carla attended Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana, where she earned a degree in Nursing and a B.S. as well. For the past four years she has worked at St. Vincent Hospital, in Indianapolis, as a Registered Nurse in Emergency, and in cardiac care. ## STAFF BY BUNKS:

GREGG BURNS....TENNIS.... is twenty five years old, and hails from Columbus, Ohio, where he studied at the University of Akron. In his second year at Chickawah, Gregg is very much involved in group and individual tennis lessons, coaching the Tennis team ( and concentrating on strategy) and also appearing as Billy Idol in the Chickawah cavalcade of Talent. A varsity player in high school, and the winner of a trophy in the Barbeton Park summer league, Gregg is, once again planning the annual Chickawah Junior and Senior Tennis Tournaments. Look for the draw on the mess hall bulletin board.

TONY ROMBACH...BASEBALL...is a small town boy of nineteen, from Samaria, Michigan. majoring in Conservation. Tony played second base on the high school varsity, lettering every year. In his first experience in an eastern camp, he seems to be holding up very well, even with boys on his shoulders, and back, at the dinner table. There are reports though of some high powered snoring at night. At Chickawah he is a spirited coach and reports great satisfaction when campers' skills improve, and he helped!

STEVE KURTH...CREATIVE ARTS AND CRAFTS...is from Bangor, Maine and is majoring in Fine Arts at the University of Maine in Orono, but has plans to transfer to Rhode Island or Cooper Union. Steve was born in Yugoslavia, where his Dad worked in the Peace Corps, and has also lived in Monrovia, and Nigeria. Steve is a talented illustrator who won an art scholarship in high school and also the Presidential Academic Fitness Award. He has initiated the first art competition at Chickawah, which will offer an opportunity for campers to enter in any media, and promises to be a satisfying new activity. Jonny B. never had it so good!

GREGG WILLIAMS...WATERSKIING...is twenty one years old and hails from Tampa, Florida. He will be a senior at the University of California at Sandiego, where his major is Writing. Gregg has been skiing for many years. In high school he was a varsity swimmer and also swam AAU. A jack of many trades, he also has extensive experience in backpacking and cycling. At the ski cove he is an enthusiastic teacher of beginners and has reinstated the Chickawah Ski team, which will give our experts the opportunity to test their skills.

RICHARD MANDELBAUM...GOLF...a second generation camper and counselor, has made a name in Chickawah all his own. A graduate of the Chickawah C.I.T. program, he is a Blue and Gray captain emeritus, and a Tribe Chief of the Chickasaw. Richard will be a junior at Princeton this year, majoring in Economics. He played high school varsity golf, and at Chickawah is helping many campers to improve their swings and scores at local golf courses....and if you have a special occasion coming up, see Rich. He'll write you a most unusual song!

CHRIS CONEYNE...BOATING...SMALL CRAFTS...is twenty years old and has come to the States from Brugge, Belgium, where he is a college student majoring in computers and office automation. Chris is also a skilled photographer including developing and printing. ( and he gives a mean haircut!) In his first trip to the States he is keeping an eye on the waterfront and an ear on English, becoming more fluent each day... but somehow the English language at camp doesn't sound like the books. See Chris to pass those boating buttons.

RUDY BOERMA...SAILING...is twenty six years old and was born in Winshoten, Holland. He has a degree in social work with major subjects in psychology and sociology( probably why he was sent to live in bunk five) Sailing is his hobby, and he has been practicing since he was six years old on lakes and rivers. He has also sailed at sea, once cruising with three companions from Spain to Holland. He is also an accomplished windsurfer. See Rudy to get in on this year's sailing races.

SHAWN PRINCE...WATERSKIING...is a native of Maine..ayuh..making his debut at the ski dock. In Gardner, where he grew up, he had many years of waterskiing experience on Maine lakes and rivers. Shawn is also proficient in a sport not played at Chickawah..... ice hockey. He was a member of the State Championship Ice Hockey team. JIM STEELE...PIONEERING...CAMPCRAFT...is nineteen years old and a student at Illinois Wesleyan University where his major is business and computers. Jim is an Eagle scout with 40 badges which include wilderness survival, first aid, and camping. In high school he lettered in Basketball and Tennis, and was an All Conference player. He will be a sophomore on the Wesleyan team this fall. At Chickawah he is sharing his scouting skills with hikers and campers, and , not surprisingly he can often be found on the Basketball Court.

MICHAEL MANDELBAUM...TENNIS...is yet another second generation Chickawahan, and a winning Blue team captain emeritus. He also was Chief of the Ute Tribe ( Scott Saltman advisor) and he is the winner of a Chickawah Senior tennis trophy. Michael will be at Princeton this fall with an undecided major leaning toward history. Last summer, he took a sabbatical and toured Europe on a Junior Davis Cup tour. He was a captain of his high school tennis team, and on the Chickawah courts is ably teaching group classes and individual lessons. If you want an answer..Michael has it!

ROBERT WRIGHT...RADIO...ELECTRONICS...N5GZN, is twenty years old and hails from Grand Rapids, Michigan. Robert has been a licensed Radio Operator for five years, and spent 186 days on an American flag vessel as an apprentice Radio Operator. FRANK WELLENS...WATERFRONT....is twenty years old and came to the States from Genk, Belgium, where he is a teacher in training, with a major in German philology. Frank has been studying English for many years and is quite at home in the language. In Belgium, he was a boy scout for nine years, and a scout leader. H holds many Belgian swimming certificates, and also loves hiking, camping, and wind surfing. Frank also likes danger, and was a member of a parachuting club. Perhaps he would like to start a free falling workshop at Chickawah...maybe he'd better teach those swim clinics!

KIRBY VOLZ...THEATRE... is twenty seven years old ( one of the more mature men on campus), and hails from Fort Wayne, Indiana. Kirby graduated from the University of South Dakota, where he majored in Speech and Theatre. He has been teaching English and Drama on the Secondary School level for three years, and will return to Chicago this year where he will again hold English and Speech classes and direct his famous musicals. At Chickawah he attempts the impossible and succeeds. Look for Guys and Dolls in August!...today Chickawah, tomorrow Broadway!

SCOTT SALTMAN...BASEBALL...is another graduate of the Chickawah C.I.T. program who has been in camp for twenty summers ( which is all of his life). Scott is a Blue and Gray captain emeritus, and Tribe Advisor too. In high school he was photography editor of the year book for three years. A junior at Amherst, Scott is majoring in physics, and is a member of the Varsity Volleyball Team. When Scott was five years old, his father, a baseball coach, pitched to him from a distance of about five feet while offering cues about grip, stance and swing. Today Scott, a dependable batter, is sharing those cues with Chickawah baseball enthusiasts, helping them to be more successful at the game and earn their baseball buttons.

RICK SNYDER...SMALL CRAFTS..WATERFRONT...is twenty one years old and is from Toledo, Ohio. Rick will be a senior at Adriana College in Michigan, where he is majoring in Chemistry and Geology. An Eagle Scout with two palms ( meaning more merit), Rick arrived on the Chickawah scene to work at the waterfront, but sometimes finds himself on mountain tops, or canoeing down a river. Craig was elevated to the head of waterfront position after a number of years as the prime mover in the swim and stay fit program and coach of Chickawah swim teams. He still shares his swimming skills, teaching clinics, and runs a tight ship on the waterfront.

DOUG SPARKS...BASKETBALL...is twenty years old and from Tucson, Arizona, where he is a student at The University of Arizona majoring in Exercise Science. His real claim to fame is his friendship with Scott Disharoon who sent him to Chickawah. Doug is also interested in track and has been the student track coach for the University of Arizona men's track team. At Chickawah he is a smiling and supportive coach ( even when we lose) and seems to really enjoy teaching and helping at the hoops.

ALEC KAY...BASKETBALL...is nineteen years old and a sophomore on the University of California at Davis'varsity Basketball team. Alec is another one of Dish's boys from Tucson. He played high school basketball for three years and was All City. He is also a talented track varsity member and was All State in track. His major is Biological Science and his goal is to become a Physical Therapist. At Chickawah it is therapy to see him sinking those long shots and practicing his jumps under the boards...and wait till his mother sees the new beard.

KOOS KEIZER...SOCCER...is twenty three years old and hails from Wervershoof, Holland. Koos has a degree in Physical Education, and has experience in teaching many sports. He has played soccer since he was ten years old, and was a soccer trainer. Koos also is well skilled at Gymnastics and was a member of a tumbling demonstration team at College. At Chickawah he has the soccer teams running plays and winning sometimes, and the World Cup soccer tournament well under way. If he has his way there will be many new soccer buttons on the board.

PAUL CARSTENSEN...RIFLERY...ARCHERY...is twenty two and hails from Maumee, Ohio. Paul is a computer programming major at Owens Technical College, in Ohio. An N.R.A. Rifle Instructor, Paul began his interest in guns shooting Trap and Skeet Tournaments. He was a scout for 13 years reaching the level of Life Scout, and earned a special award as a member of the Order of the Arrow. Another interest is singing in the choir. Watch for him in the near future on the Chickawah stage. Paul presides over two ranges, encouraging boys to earn their rifle and archery patches, and is coaching the rifle and archery teams...and is well qualified to calm a savage senior house!
